

Virtual Assistant

Australian Virtual Personal Assistant Service

Get Some Extra Assistance

Virtual Assistants are a professional answering and appointment booking service that can be answered in a personal or a company name. Once the call is answered by our operators, we can either take a message or schedule appointments directly into your designated system. And of course, our operators are locally trained and based in Australia.

Australian Based

Our operators and call centre are located in Australia. With local knowledge and training, our operators will answer your calls as if they were based at your business premises.

100% Customised

All our phone messaging services are fully tailored to suit your business requirements. Our flexible options are designed to meet almost any business need.

Operates 24/7, 365 Days a Year

Our services operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year. This means your service will always be operating, even on major public holidays such as Christmas or New Year's Day.

Seamless Integration with Booking Platforms

Our operators will answer calls on behalf of your business and enter bookings directly into your designated system, so you and your staff can focus on other important duties.

Tailored to Your Business Needs

Whether you need extra help taking reservation requests, booking appointments or simply answering general FAQs, our Virtual Assistant services are fully tailored to the requirements of your business.
